

Mike Wagner, ACI, CRP is President of RAL Inspection Services, a respected provider of relocation & trust inspections throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. Mike is a licensed professional home inspector and is a Certified Inspector with the American Society of Home Inspectors (ASHI) where he was honored to receive the Presidents award for outstanding service to his profession. Mike currently serves as President Elect on ASHI's national Board; is a Trustee for the ASHI Foundation and serves as an officer for ASHI Education. Mike is licensed to perform wood destroying insect inspections, residential radon measurements and is a certified Level 1 EIFS Moisture/QC Inspector as well as being certified in deck evaluation/inspections. Mike is a member of the Worldwide Employee Relocation Council where he earned the Certified Relocation Professional (CRP) designation and was honored to receive the Worldwide ERC Meritorious Service Award. Mike has the privilege of serving on various relocation management company advisory boards and also served on the taskforce responsible for the creation of the Worldwide ERC Relocation Property Assessment report. Mike has authored several articles and is a frequent speaker/trainer for the relocation and inspection industries.